This week at Fair Furlong

This week in school
Our new reception children enjoyed a picnic with their families to end a brilliant couple of weeks of transition. We look forward to welcoming them all in next week full time.

Book of the Week

Mrs Lang launched 'Book of the Week' and shared an extract of Esio Trot by Roald Dahl in assembly. Each week the teachers and other school adults will be invited to choose a recommended book for the children to read. Mrs Lang would love to have some book reviews for our special books so if anyone has read or reads this book please review it and pass your writing to Mrs Lang.

Barton Camp

Our year 5 and 6 children enjoyed an amazing four days at Barton camp enjoying swimming, paddle boarding, den building, fun and games and talent shows, all finished off with a great day in Cheddar. See photos at the end of the newsletter.

School film for website

Next week on Monday and Wednesday we will have a filmmaker visiting to take some more footage for our school video. You may remember him filming some events before the summer holidays. Please ensure as always that your children are in school uniform. He may take some film of the children arriving to school as well. We will let you know when the film is made so you can take a look.

- After School Clubs have started this week but don't worry if you didn't realise. However, if you haven't already signed up for any clubs and would like to we do still have places in:

DATA PROTECTION REGULATION - You may not be aware but the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) comes into force in May 2018. As part of our preparations we are conducting due diligence for all parents to be aware of the new regulation and how it affects their child and the way the school deals with their personal data. Under the new regulation we have a responsibility to ensure to the best of our ability that any personal data held is up to date. We would ask that should any of your personal data change i.e. telephone number, address, medical needs etc that you please inform the school as soon as possible so we can update our records. You will still receive an annual data collection sheet every September but we would ask you not to wait but inform the school of any changes immediately.

9th September 2019

What's going on this week?

Fires have been burning the world's largest tropical forest, the Amazon Rainforest, for around 4-weeks. The French President, Emmanuel Macron, has called the fires an "international crisis" and along with 6 other countries, offered money to help put the fires out. The Brazilian President, Bolsonaro, refused this money. It has been reported that there have been 74,000 fires in the Amazon this year so far, a lot more than last year. It's a worrying increase because the Amazon very rarely burns on its own as it is usually too wet to ignite, so most of the fires are caused by people. The Amazon Rainforest is important to the air we breathe and for turning the gas carbon dioxide into oxygen. The jungle is home to many different species of wildlife and plants, many of which are rare or endangered.

Things to talk about at home...

- Do you think important places like the Amazon Rainforest, should be protected by all countries together, rather than individual countries?
