This week at Fair Furlong

Update on Extended After School Club

Following up from the offer of an after-school club for children at Fair Furlong, we are unfortunately currently unable to pursue this. We've had confirmation/expression of interest from 6 parents in total and there's just not enough consistency from them to run the club.

We'd need a minimum of 14 parents showing consistency across the week, but sadly there just isn't enough commitment.

We've looked at timetables, coaches, options and other ways of supporting - but the club would be making such a loss each week that we wouldn't be able to provide the club.

Those parent/carers who have given a paid commitment will receive a full refund.

Apologies that this provision is not a viable option at this point.
